RACE COURSE

This year the entire mountain will be part of the EGS race. It is a two-day race (Saturday – Sunday) on natural trails with a volcanic landscape of exceptional beauty. The terrain alternates between alpine scenery and forests of fir, oak, chestnut and shrubs. April offers the best terrain conditions: ideal humidity, little dust and strong natural aromas from the forest. All trails are of medium difficulty, with no hidden or unexpected sections. Course marking will be excellent, with club staff present throughout the course.

Detailed course analysis and map will be announced on April 18.

The 9 special stages and one E-Bike Superstage will remain unknown until the start of practice.

Race Day 1, 19,5 km and 885 alt. gain

Race Day 2, 20 km and 790 alt.gain

TRAINING

Practice runs are allowed on Thursday April 23 and Friday April 24 according to the schedule. Reverse riding and stopping on the trails is strictly prohibited.
